Once there was a King who had several lovely daughters. The youngest daughter was very beautiful. Even the Sun, who sees so many wonders, could not help marveling every time he looked into her face.

One warm day the beautiful little Princess went into the forest and sat at the rim of a cool well. There she played with her golden ball, tossing it up and catching it in her little hands.

This was her favorite game and she never tired of it.

One day, as the Princess tossed her golden ball into the air, it did not fall into her hands as usual. Instead, it fell to the ground and rolled to the rim of the well. Then it fell into the water.

Nouns and Verbs

If you know nouns and verbs, the frog will hop all the way to the palace.
Remember, a noun is a person, place, or thing. A verb shows action.

If the word is a noun, put an N on the line and color ONE hop.
If the word is a verb, put a V on the line and color TWO hops.
