Introduction

Each book in the Power Practice ${ }^{\text {rTM }}$ series contains dozens of ready-to-use activity pages to provide students with skill practice. Use the fun activities to supplement and enhance what you are already teaching in your classroom. S F 1 His best friend just returned from an Alaskan cruise.
S F 2 On the edge of her desk.
S F 3 The day care center next to the park.
S F 4 The teacher's desk is in the front of the classroom.
S F 5 Most of the girls on the team.
S F 6 The local press reported the story three weeks ago.
S F 1 Three of the major league teams.
S F 8 Found it hard to believe.
S F 9 Ate all the cupcakes before the party.
S F 10 The puppy gnawed a hole in my new shoe.

Sentence Sense

There are four basic types of sentences:

- A declarative sentence makes a statement or tells something. It ends with a period (.).
- An interrogative sentence asks a question. It ends with a question mark (?).
- An imperative sentence gives a command. It ends with either a period (.) or an exclamation point (!).
- An exclamatory sentence expresses a strong feeling. It ends with an exclamation point (!).

Place the correct end mark after each sentence. Label each to tell which type it is—declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory.
